

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Prime Time Man And Van Limited.

These conditions explain the rights, obligations and responsibilities of all parties to this Agreement. Where we use the word “you” or “your” it means the Customer: “we”, “us” or “our” means, as the circumstances require, Prime Time Man & Van Ltd and/or any of its subsidiaries with whom you are contracting. We recommend you arrange insurance to cover your goods and/or premises. The insurance will be separate from this contract and subject to the terms and conditions of that policy. Your attention is drawn to Clauses 7,8, 9, 10 and 11 which set out our liability to you for loss of or damage to goods and property.

1. Our Quotation

Our quotation, unless otherwise stated constitutes the entire agreement between the parties together with these terms and conditions but it does not include customs duties, port charges and inspections or any other fees or taxes payable to government bodies or otherwise arising from the removal or introduction of your property into or out of the United Kingdom or any other jurisdiction. We may change the price or make additional charges if circumstances are found to apply which have not been taken into account when preparing our quotation and confirmed by us in writing. These include:

- (a) You do not accept our quotation in writing within 28 days, or the work is not carried out or completed within three months.
- (b) Our costs change because of currency fluctuations or changes in taxation or freight, fuel, ferry or toll charges beyond our control.
- (c) The work is carried out outside our normal business hours (09.00- 18.00hrs) at your request.
- (d) If you collect some or all of the goods from our warehouse, we are entitled to make a charge for handing them over.
- (e) We supply any additional services, including moving or storing extra goods (these conditions apply to such work).

(f) The stairs, lifts or doorways are inadequate for free movement of the goods without mechanical equipment or structural alteration, or the approach, road or drive is unsuitable for our vehicles and/or containers to load and/or unload within 20 metres of the doorway.

(g) We have to pay parking or other fees, fines or congestion charges in order to carry out services on your behalf.

(h) There are delays or events outside our reasonable control which increase or extend the resources or time allowed to complete the agreed work.

(i) Extra fuel charges apply when travelling outside the M25.

(j) There is a minimum charge of £200 (per half tonne) for taking goods to a refuse/recycling centre (fees may be substantially higher). In any such circumstances, adjusted charges will apply and become payable.

Our staff are not authorized or qualified to carry out such work. We recommend that a properly qualified person is separately employed by you to carry out these services.

3. Your responsibility

It will be your sole responsibility to:

(a) Arrange adequate insurance cover for the goods submitted for removal transit and /or storage, against all insurable risks as our liability is limited.

(b) Obtain at your own expense, all documents, permits including parking or visitor permits or vouchers or relevant charge for the parking metres, permissions, licences, customs documents and any other documents necessary for the removal to be completed. This includes reserving a suitable parking place/suspension bay within close proximity of the property for our vehicle/s.

(e) Any animals, birds or fish.

(f) Goods which require special licence or government permission for export or import.

If we do agree to remove such goods, we will not accept liability for loss or damage unless we are negligent or in breach of contract, in which case all these conditions will apply.

If you submit such goods without our knowledge we will make them available for your collection and if you do not collect them within a reasonable time we will apply for an appropriate court order to dispose of any such goods found in the consignment without notice. You will furthermore pay to us any charges, expenses, damages, legal costs, interest or penalties incurred by us.

You are responsible for obtaining all permits, licences or any other documents required to transport your goods into another jurisdiction than England and Wales. We are not responsible for any loss of damage caused by failure to do so, including, but not limited to, the confiscation of your goods. Further, you will indemnify and hold us harmless in respect of any loss, damage or costs caused by your failure to obtain such permissions, including, but not limited to, any fines.

5. Ownership of the goods

By entering into this Agreement, you guarantee that:

(a) The goods to be removed and/or stored are your own property, or

(b) The person(s) who own or have an interest in them have given you authority to make this contract and have been made aware of these conditions.

(c) You will provide us with a full indemnity and pay us in respect of any claim for damages and/or costs brought against us if the statement is not true.

6. Charges if you postpone or cancel the removal

By agreeing to undertake the removal or storage we incur costs in preparing for it and also lose the opportunity to undertake further work that would use the same resources. Because of this, we may suffer loss if you cancel this contract or postpone its performance. The amount we will potentially lose will depend upon when the cancellation and/or postponement occur. If you postpone or cancel this Agreement, we will charge you according to how much notice is given. "Working days" refer to the normal working week of Monday to Friday and excludes weekends and Public Holidays.

More than 7 working days before the removal was due to start: No charge.

If less than 7 days before the removal was due to start: not more than 50% of the removal charge.

Within 24 hours: 100% of the removal charge.

7. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed by us in writing:

(a) Payment will fall due immediately upon acceptance of the contract. Payment will be taken from the debit/credit card details supplied to secure the booking. We do not accept AMEX, cheques or cash payments.

If you have agreed a QUOTED removal at the time of booking, payment will be taken from the debit/credit card the day before commencement of the removal.

For all hourly removals the minimum hourly payment required to confirm the booking will be taken the day before commencement of the removals with the outstanding balance taken the day after completion of the removal.

(b) You may not withhold any part of the agreed price.

(c) In respect of all sums which are overdue to us, we will charge interest on a daily basis calculated at 2% per annum above the prevailing base rate for the time being of Royal Bank of Scotland plc.

(d) All discussions regarding payment must be with an authorized representative of the Company and not with the Staff carrying out the removal or storage.

(e) There is a minimum period allotted for the removal or storage of two hours.

(f) VAT will be added to the cost of the removals or storage at the prevailing rate.

(g) We reserve the right to set off any charges which might otherwise be due to you, any sums due to us from you in relation to the contract or any other contract between you and us.

8. Determination of amount of our liability for loss or damage

If you have requested us to arrange separate insurance cover for your goods, then you must exhaust all remedies available to you under the terms and conditions of that separate insurance cover before making any claim against us or seeking any remedy from us.

Otherwise, our liability to you is to be determined in accordance with our Clauses.

In the event of direct loss (excluding any consequential losses) of or damage to your goods caused by negligence on our part, our liability to you is to be assessed as a sum equivalent to the cost of their repair or replacement, taking into account their age, wear and tear, depreciation and condition immediately prior to their loss or damage, subject to a maximum liability of £40 per item.

For the avoidance of doubt, all liability and compensation for loss shall be calculated as above and not on a "new for old" basis. We will always seek to repair an item in the first instance in which case the damage will be limited to the repair costs. We do not accept liability for loss of or damage to goods confiscated, seized, removed or damaged by Customs Authorities or other Government Agencies unless we have been negligent or in breach of contract. We will accept liability for loss or damage:

(a) Arising from our negligence whilst the goods are in our physical possession, or

(b) Whilst the goods are in the possession of others if the loss or damage is established to have been caused by our failure to pack the goods to a reasonable standard where we have been contracted to pack the goods that are subject to the claim.

(c) Where we engage an international transport operator, shipping company or airline to convey your goods, to the place, port or airport of destination, we do so on your behalf and subject to the terms and conditions set out by that carrier;

(d) If the carrying vessel should for reasons beyond the carriers control fail to deliver the goods or route them to a place other than the original destination, you may have limited recourse against the carrier depending upon the carriers terms and conditions of carriage. You may be liable for General Average contributions (e.g. the costs incurred to preserve the vessel) and salvage charges or the additional cost of onward transmission to the place, port or airport of destination. These are insurable risks and it is your responsibility to arrange adequate marine/transit cover.

An Item is defined as:-

The entire contents of a wardrobe, drawer, box, parcel, package, carton, or similar container; and any other object or thing that is moved, handled or stored by us.

9. Damage to premises or property other than goods

Because third party contractors are frequently present at the time of collection or delivery, our liability for loss or damage is limited as follows:

If we cause loss or damage to premises or property other than goods for removal as a result of our negligence or breach of contract, our liability shall be limited to making good the damaged area only provided that we are not liable for the first £50 of any claim.

If we cause damage as a result of moving goods under your express instruction, against our advice, and where to move the goods in the manner instructed is likely to cause damage, we shall not be liable.

If we are responsible for causing damage to your premises or to property other than goods submitted for removal and/or storage, you must note this on the worksheet or delivery receipt as soon as practically possible or within a reasonable time. This is fundamental to the Agreement.

10. Exclusions of liability

In respect of our liability, we will not be liable for loss of or damage to your goods as a result of non-delivery or mis-delivery, unless we have been negligent.

We shall not be liable for loss or damage caused by fire or explosion. It is your responsibility to insure your goods against fire or explosion.

(j) Loss of or damage to china, glassware and fragile items unless they have been both professionally packed and unpacked by us or our Subcontractor. (k) For electrical or mechanical derangement to any appliance, instrument, clock, computer or other equipment unless there is evidence of related external damage;

(o) For any goods not delivered or mis-delivered;

(p) For complying with any acts, regulations, bye laws, orders or restrictions imposed by any government or authority (public or local); and

(q) Theft of any goods. No staff member shall be separately liable to you for any loss, damage, mis-delivery, errors or omissions under these terms. Our liability will cease upon handing over goods from our warehouse or upon completion of delivery.

11. Time limit for claims

For goods which we deliver, you must notify us in writing of any visible loss, damage or failure to produce any goods at the time of delivery.

If you or your agent collects the goods, you must notify us in writing of any loss or damage at the time the goods are handed to you or your agent.

We will not be liable for any loss of or damage to the goods unless a claim is notified to us, or to our agent or the company carrying out the collection or delivery of the goods on our behalf, in writing as soon as such loss or damage is discovered (or with reasonable diligence ought to have been discovered) and in any event within seven (7) days of delivery of the goods by us.

13. Our Right to Hold the Goods (lien)

These include any charges that we have paid out on your behalf. While we hold the goods you will be liable to pay all storage charges and other costs incurred by our withholding your goods and these terms and conditions shall continue to apply.

14. Disputes

If there is a dispute arising from this Agreement, which cannot be resolved between the parties or by any Applicable Dispute Resolution Scheme, it may (without prejudice to any other claim procedures available to either party) be referred by either party to an Arbitration seated in London, England (within the meaning of the Arbitration Act 1996) where the case will be independently determined by an arbitrator agreed by the parties, or failing such agreement, nominated by the President of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators of England and Wales.

15. Our right to sub-contract the work

We reserve the right to subcontract some or all of the work; in particular, but not limited to, the sub-contracting to a third party or parties the shipping of your goods via sea. If we sub-contract, then these conditions will still apply save to the extent that nothing in these terms and conditions shall confer on any other third party any benefit or right to enforce these terms and conditions.
